NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED TO RESUME THE PUBLICATION of the North Carolina Christian Advocate at an early day, under the patronage of the North Carolina Conference, and under the direction and ownership of a Joint Stock Company, composed of ministers and laymen, to assume its proprietorship.

It will be as its name imports, a CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. It will maintain and defend the doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and labor to advance Christ's Kingdom on earth, and to promote peace and good will among all men.

Besides its essential religious character, it [illegible] the advocacy of the moral, educational and industrial [illegible] of our Southern [illegible] to the camps of our brave soldiers, and [illegible] of what may be useful and interesting [illegible]

All the [illegible] ministers [illegible] of the Company, are specially requested to act as Agents for the paper.

Should subscribers of the Advocate will be [illegible] with the new series, to the full amount due them at the time of its suspension. [illegible] books are not in the possession of the Editor, he must rely on the old subscribers themselves and the Agents, to furnish him with their names and paid [illegible] amount due them.

The Advocate will be well printed on good paper, and will contain an amount of reading matter equal to any paper in the State.

During the continuance of war prices the subscription price will be $3 per annum, always in advance.

[illegible] the Agent will be entitled to a copy of the paper for one year. It is desirable that a large list be sent in at once.

Address W. E. PELL, Editor.
